

Advent Prayers for a Household

A simple and adaptable spiritual practice, for use in homes. Household members may take turns leading prayers and reading the Bible passage for a given day or week.

A Time to Come Together

If there is an Advent wreath with candles

Leader We light these candles in hope and expectation.

All Jesus is the light of the World.

Candles are lit.

Continue (or begin, if there is no wreath)

Leader We wait joyfully for the coming of Jesus.

All Into the world, into the Church, into our home
Come, Lord Jesus, quickly come!

A Time to Be Together

A Bible passage (suggestions overleaf) is read aloud by one member of the household. Following the reading, the household will be together in its own way. Some suggestions:

Share a meal at a table.

Enter into silence, for 1-30 minutes, or more. Silence may be marked by stillness, pondering the passage read from the Bible, or gazing on the Advent candles or an icon. Alternatively, it may be combined with an activity like a household task or Christmas preparation.

Have a discussion. While this may be part of sharing a meal together, it could also happen in another setting. Consider a question: Did something happen today that reminded you how much God loves the world? Was there a time today when you felt particularly close to Jesus? What might we do this Advent and Christmas as an act of loving service?

A Time to Pray Together

Prayers are offered, silently or aloud, concluding with the Lord's Prayer. The following litany may be used.

Leader That the Church will be a place of hope and a sign of the goodness of God,

All Hear us, Lord of Glory, for you we wait.

Leader That all people will serve the needs of others and care for creation,

All Hear us, Lord of Glory, for you we wait.

Leader That this home will be a place of welcome, patience, truth, safety, and love,

All Hear us, Lord of Glory, for you we wait.

All Our Father...

A Time to Go into the World Together

The household acknowledges its vocation within the wider world.

Leader Peace be upon us and within this house,

All And in all the world

Leader Let us share Good News wherever we may be.

All Amen, Amen!
